

Serve on UUCA's Love and Justice Team as a..

Love and Justice Ambassador

Applications close on Sunday, November 19th.

Summary

The Love and Justice team is seeking leaders to serve as Ambassadors for our justice work here at UUCA and in our local communities. The Love and Justice Team will work in partnership with our ARAOMC strategy team. Ambassadors will create opportunities for UUCA Members to engage in social justice, support marginalized communities in fighting for their rights on their terms, and contribute their voice, ideas and skillsets to foster a more equitable and just world right here in Atlanta and at UUCA. Accessibility, intersectionality and community engagement are the three pillars that will inform the work and focus of the Love and Justice Team.

We are looking to fill a team of up to 7 Congregants who can share of their unique perspectives. Youth, elders, persons with disabilities, genderfluid, POC, new to UUCA, long-standing members, etc. All voices and identities are valued as we desire equal representation of our dynamic and diverse congregational make-up. No formal justice experience necessary.

Primary Duties

- Inform UUCA Leadership of actions, policies and/or human rights violations locally
- Research community partners who are leading advocacy efforts in their respective areas and seeking to dismantle barriers for those marginalized/disenfranchised
- Assist with planning and execution of accessible justice events and activities
- Contribute to organizing, strategy and community-building work

Proficiencies Desired

- Understanding of why an ARAOMC and/or intersectional approach to justice is important
- Willingness to work collaboratively and communicate effectively across differences
- Strong desire to take action and a stand against injustice in our local communities
- Assist in evaluating efforts with a broad base of metrics and values
- Willingness to lead AND be led, to teach AND be taught

Terms of Service

*An estimated 5 hours per week of independent and collaborative work is requested
Participation in monthly calls and quarterly trainings/strategy meetings are required
Love and Justice Ambassadors will serve one-year terms with option to renew/re-apply*

Application Process

Submit your resume, or a list some of your personal strengths/skills, and a brief statement about why you're interested to Social Justice Coordinator, Stacy Rodriguez, at stacy.rodriquez@uuca.org with the Subject Line "LJ Team - First and Last Name".

Applications close on Sunday, November 19th.