Walk the Labyrinth

December 30, 2018, 10:00 am - Noon

As 2018 gives way to 2019, you are invited to walk UUCA's labyrinth. Drop in any time between 10am-noon. While you are waiting your turn to walk the labyrinth, check out four different stations that we'll have set up in the building. At the first, there will be inspiring readings for you to reflect on.

At the second station, you can read more about labyrinths and learn some pointers on how to make your experience special. At the third station, you can light a candle to remember loved ones or honor a turning point in your life. At the fourth station, you will find special slips of paper that dissolve in water. Write down something you'd like to let go of, and experience healing as you see the paper dissolve before your eyes. Come to UUCA on January 1 and start the new year off right with a spiritually moving and invigorating experience
